YOUTH SLAIN WHEN GUARDS FIRE ON STRIKERS; SAN PABLO MAY ENTER SANITARY DISTRICT

STRIKER'S SON KILLED WHEN GUARDS FIRE

CLINTON, Ill., July 8.—James Fitzgerald, a striking Illinois Central shopman, was shot in the neck and his 14-year-old son was killed by a stray bullet during an outbreak of violence this afternoon. The shots are said to have been fired by guards who were escorting strikebreakers from a train to work. Strikers began stoning the guards and the firing followed.

Six sticks of dynamite were found in coal used in the yards of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road. All of the coal in the yards of the company now is being screened to discover if it contains any more explosives.

SACRAMENTO, July 8.—Declaring that violence is imminent as a result of the importation of Japanese mechanics as strikebreakers, the Labor Council of Barstow, San Bernardino county, today appealed to Governor W. D. Stephens to act in an effort to avert rioting.

The feeling against Japanese workers, coupled with the fact that they were imported to do this work of white strikers, is reported to have resulted in an acute situation in the vicinity of Barstow. Strikers are said to have threatened violence unless the Japanese are promptly removed.

SACRAMENTO, July 8—Clashes in three different sections of the city in which one man was reported severely beaten by strikers, marked developments in the railroad strike situation here today. The strikers succeeded in turning several score of workers back, it is said. Officials of the Southern Pacific Railroad admitted that fewer men reported to work in local shops today. The clash in which M.C. Luchini was injured occurred on the Southern Pacific bridge.

A picnic was enjoyed at Lincoln Park, Alameda, by thirty-five children of the Richmond Daily Vacation School as well as a large number of pupils from other vacation schools in the bay district. The Richmond school was the winner in the song contest, while second places in races of their respective ages were won by Eugene Robertson, Winifred Rice Samuel Rowe and Margaret Forssel. The teachers' race was won by Miss Wilmay Blackman of Richmond.

The following teachers accompanied by Richmond children: Mrs. De Shields, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Kinney, Miss Blackman, Mrs. Snoddy, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Dimock.

The children of the kindergarten will hold a picnic tomorrow.

Graduation exercises will be held on Friday.

J. C. Malcom, 555 Nineteenth street, was elected first vice-president and Bob Sandstrom, 1500 East Twelfth street, second vice president. Miss Alta Wright, 1526 Pearl street, Alameda, was chosen secretary by almost a unanimous vote.

Dr. Blake, who is health commissioner for Richmond and an ardent radio fan, was unopposed for the position of president.

FRANK A. MOITOZA

In this issue of the Record-Herald appears the formal announcement of Frank A. Moitoza, well known real estate man of 268 Twelfth street, for the office of constable of the fifteenth township, which takes in the city of Richmond.

Moitoza enters the contest at the requests of his many friends and will make a clean vigorous campaign for the office which he seeks. He has had years of experience that well fits him for the position.

Pioneer in Richmond.

The candidate has been connected with the history of Richmond since 1898 when there was nothing here but the construction camps of the Santa Fe. He was residing at San Pablo at the time and was selected to come to Richmond and see that the law was observed by the rough element that was connected with the construction work. Later when the car shops were established and Pt. Richmond sprung into being and the population increased very rapidly the board of supervisors created a new township here, and Moitoza was selected to fill the place.

Work During 'Quake Period.

When Richmond was first incorporated, the city fathers were known as town trustees and during the earthquake period Moitoza was appointed by E. J. Garrard, then president of the town trustees as special detective to look out for the interests of this city. During that time Mr. Moitoza was placed in charge of 27 special officers who had been appointed. He was also selected by the late Colonel W. S. Rheem as an officer to care for the interests of the street car system.

Later Moitoza resigned and went to Arizona and Texas where he remained for a number of years, afterwards returning to San Francisco where he entered the real estate business. Five years ago he returned to Richmond where he has since resided.

Made Important Captures.

In the early days of Richmond he did valiant work, and made a number of very important captures.

Mr. Moitoza feels that he is fitted for the duties of the office and is confident he can render effective service for the general public. He has no friends to reward and no enemies to punish and promises that he will see that the laws are impartially enforced.

A. L. Pearson, of Fourth Street Garage, local agens for the Hudson and Essex, reports the sale of the second Essex in the last two days.

Mr. C. E. Ramey is the proud owner of an Essex coat, which was delivered to him last night. This makes Mr. Remey's second Essex, and he is a profound booster for this new Coach model.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB HAVE MERRY PARTY

The Square Dance Club held another of its enjoyable dancing parties last evening in Moose Hall, with one of the largest crowds in many weeks in attendance. In addition to the square dances, the modern waltzes and fox trots were also on the program. Bennett's orchestra furnished the music, and George Bernard and George Kitchen were the floor managers. Dancing continued until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

JUNIORS PLAY AT CROCKETT

The Richmond Juniors will journey to Crockett this morning, where they will go up against the fast Crockett team. The up-county club has been undefeated this season and expects to keep up its good work today by sending the Richmond boys home on the short end of the score. Realizing the strength of the Crockett team, Manager Dan O'Loan has signed up a number of stars and hopes to bring home the bacon. Art Muth will pitch, and O'Loan will be behind the plate.

The Paraffine Paint team of Oakland will come here this afternoon to hook up with the Richmond Juniors at the Twenty-third street ball park. Johnny Huseika will be on the mound for the locals, with Muth on the receiving end. The contest will start at 2:30.

SAN PABLANS WANT BETTER SEWER MAINS

The people of San Pablo, proper, are agitating the question of coming into the San Pablo sanitary district.

A mass meeting will be held in Maple hall, San Pablo, early this week, when the matter will be discussed pro and con.

The present district covers an area of 640 acres, and serves approximately 2,000 people. The people in the town who are considering entry into the district number about 400 and occupy about 600 acres.

It is estimated that the cost of joining the established district will be about $3,000, whereas the cost of putting in the apparatus and paying the other costs incident to creating a new and separate district would be $12,000 to $16,000.

O. F. DONNELLY

After a service of four years as Coroner of Contra Costa county Charles F. Donnelly is again seeking the position, and in today's Record-Herald he makes the formal announcement of his candidacy.

In his campaign four years ago he won out by a majority of over 200, and his friends assert that he will be re-elected by a much larger vote this time.

That he has made a success in the administration of the affairs of his office his supporters claim there is no doubt, and point to the standing he has attained, by his election as the president of the state organization of coroners.

Mr. Donnelly is superintendent of the San Francisco Oakland Traction Railways company, past president of the Richmond Lions, affiliated with a number of fraternal organizations and has been very active in civic matters.

Contra Costa County And The Contest For United States Senator

Says Harry Hammond's Byron Times:

"All interest in California Politics," says Walter P. Jones in the Sacramento Bee, "is centering on the United State Senate fight, which began overshadowing even the Governorship contest this moment Charles C. Moore was injected in to the conflict against Senator Johnson."

That is a remarkable admission considering the talk of the wise ones who have been saying that no matter who was suggested, it would not create a ripple, for the fight was already won.

The boy whistling up the dark alley to keep up his courage was nothing compared to the shrieks of the opposition who are hurling all sorts of ridicule and other evidences of fright against the candidate who has dared to give battle to the great Hon who has been roaring in the forest for some time.

If C. C. Moore were the pitiful figure some of them love to represent, why all the wailing and gnashing and other evidences of perturbation?

So desperate a strait, evidently have the forces reached, that statements are being sent out that various Republican county committees have endorsed the record of the senior Senator.

A things so easily exposed, one would imagine would not be resorted to, but anything to fool the rank and file seems legitimate in politics.

Contra Costa was mentioned as one county that had "enthusiastically endorsed Johnson and made him the party candidate."

Of course, Contra Costa has done nothing of the kind. The Republican County Central Committee has not even met, and when it does meet, one of the assured things it will not do is to endorse the senior Senator.

This is a fair sample of the misrepresentation that is going the rounds.

If this contest is a joke, and Mr. Moore is such an easy victim, it seems strange so great an effort is made to bring him into ridicule and to denounce some of those who are standing sponsor for him.

NO DISORDERS IN STRIKING CIRCLES HERE

There was no departure from the routine strike program in Richmond yesterday.

"There have been no disorders or outbreaks among the strikers here, a few mild attempts to intimidate, but nothing serious. And the firing of those pistol shots reported Wednesday evening had no meaning, except as I said before; it was the work of a couple of foolish fellows who had no experience in handling guns and probably wanted to hear them bark."

The speaker was Chief of Police Wood.

"Our department has been given no trouble here. Of course if the strikers should really attempt to run the lines established by the railroad company, we'd do what is necessary," continued Chief Wood.

Following a meeting held in Fisher Hall, El Cerrito, members of Poppyfield Lodge, B. R. C., stated that the employes of the Pullman shops, who were laid off several days ago because of the reported shortage of Pullman cars in the shops due to heavy transcontinental traffic, will not return to work next Tuesday unless they get orders from national headquarters.

It was said that all employes who were laid off by the Pullman company have been notified to report for work on July 11.

PROOF OF INNOCENCE.

Says the former Kaiser, in his latest interview:

"Not only economically and industrially, but politically also, Germany some day will be as great as she ever was before. And then we shall prove to the world that we were not responsible, and that I was not responsible, for the outbreak of the war."

This is a curious statement. Logic is logic and proof is proof, most people would suppose, without any regard to Germany's political regeneration. And it is of past events, not future events, that any proof of Germany's responsibility depends.

If Germany is going to prove her innocence when she regains political power again, how will she do it? With another war of aggression.

BOOK SUGAR.

One of the children's librarians told the American Library Association convention that many children are getting mental indigestion by choosing all sweets and desserts in their reading instead of taking a little solid food.

This is quite likely to be the case with the child whose reading is wholly unsupervised. Following the line of least resistance in reading, choosing always the easiest and most showy and pleasant rather than the thing substantial enough to give the teeth something to bite on, develops the type of citizen who has to be amused because he cannot think. Reading just to kill time is on a scarcely higher plane than playing cards for the same purpose.

The average mother, who had no such largess of reading matter spread before her youthful eyes as this public library of today supplies her child is not apt to be an adequate judge of the child's reading. Yet she can learn to be, if she will give the matter a little attention. And the librarian who rules that only one "cheap and easy" book may go out at a time, accompanied by one of more solid texture, is aiding in the molding of a more intelligent citizenship.

POSTOFFICE INTERIORS.

Around many postoffice buildings in this country, whether built out of the congressional pork barrel or otherwise, are rather looking outside than they are efficient and healthful within. Postmaster General Work, in a recent letter to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, pointed out that 500 postoffice buildings need enlarged floor space, improved lighting and ventilating system and other provisions for better work amid more healthful conditions.

Investigations have shown that greatly postal business in recent years—particularly the rapid growth of the parcel post—has freed the use of dark basements, sub-basements and congested quarters. Many work rooms are positive menace to the health of postal employees.

Taken on the whole, in spite of much public complaining, the postal service is marvelously effective. That is so, under conditions which would not be permitted in any well-run private industry, is no credit to the public. The loyalty and intelligence of postoffice employes deserve reward. The least that can possibly be done is to replace hampering conditions with helpful and suitable ones.

ON GUARD AT THE COAL BIN.

With the coal strike continuing and the outlook complicated by a rail strike and car shortage, about all the private citizen can do to protect himself is to stand on guard at the coal bin.

Without waiting for winter or any ponderous settlement of pending problems, the householder can begin an intelligent survey of the whole question of fuel and heating right in his own home. Chimneys can be overhauled, furnaces and stoves cleaned and repaired, houses made secure against piercing conditions with helpful and suitable ones fitted with weather stripping and plans devised for banking the foundation in the fall. Then, since it's a wise man that knows his own furnace, a practical study can be made of the various heating devices so that when the time comes for the firing up, the greatest amount of heat may be obtained from the smallest amount of fuel. For what's the use of paying for or shoveling more coal than is necessary, whether it be plenty or scarce?

America always has been spendthrift of her fuels. Her natural resources have been diminished and her problems multiplied through sheer waste. If the present situation teaches the ordinary consumer to conserve his heating materials, much will be gained.

RADIO TRAIN CONTROL.

One of the finest uses to which radio communication is being put is the protection of human life. Ships at sea can now be guided through heavy fog and may some day be protected even further in ways as yet undiscovered. On land, the automatic control for railroad trains is likely soon to be replaced by radio telephones, enabling engineers or conductors to keep in continuous touch with every station along the line.

This is the latest step in the steady advance of safety devices for railroads, from the earliest days when the only precaution against collision was the carefulness of the engineer. That stage was followed by the use of synchronized watches, then by the red light, the telegraph, the air brake, the block signal system, the interlocking signal and the automatic control.

Each of these improvements, in the end, depends for its success on the individual engineer. If he does not heed the warnings given, even constant radio communication can do nothing. The fact is that the engineer is nearly always so reliable and keen that he deserves all the mechanical help possible, and having it, uses it unfailingly. The radio telephone is a new and better tool for his work.

FINES FOR LINERS.

The ocean steamship companies have been charged many times with grave responsibility in the evasion of immigration statutes and the encouragement of aliens to ship for American ports without regard to their fitness or their chances of admission when they arrive. Under a new law such abuses as this should be less frequent.

Under this law, according to the commissioner of immigration, "a transport company is forced to pay the government a fine of $200 for every immigrant brought in above the lawful quota. In addition to this, companies must pay a maintenance charge for excess quota passengers while they are detained here and must conduct them back to their point of embarkation free of charge.

"We do not expect to have the trouble with the steamship companies this year that we did last," the commissioner said.

Little by little, ways are being found for combatting some of the greater evils of the immigration problem, and while there is infinite room for study and improvement in the whole situation every little bit helps. If the transportation lines can be held from profiteering in alien ignorance and helplessness and at government expense, it will be a long step forward.

In packing the camp kit don't put good manners at the bottom of the bag.

A rail strike is not the same thing as hitting the ties, but it sometimes leads to it.

Somehow there doesn't seem to be any very insistent demand for transplanted perspiration glands.

The peak of Mt. Everest remains unconquered, so there's still plenty of room at the top.

Maybe a good deal of this improved business condition is due to frightened war grafters spending freely while they're free.

A magazine writer says there are enough brains in the world to solve most of our problems. No doubt! But most of those brains are busy with the problem of where to go for vacation and what to have for dinner.

At 3000° F— What?

As your motor begins to "warm up," what happens to the oil? It thins, of course, But just how does it thin and how does it act when subjected to the high operating temperatures?

Upon the answer to that question depends the proper lubrication of your car.

Zerolene, being made from selected crudes and scientifically refined by our patented vacuum process, resists engine heat; it retains its lubricating "body" at all operating temperatures. It does not decompose or "break down." It clings to the bearing surfaces and maintains a perfect film of lubricant.

A Minimum of Soft, Flaky Carbon

If the motor is getting proper lubrication, some oil slips past the pistons and is consumed by the flame of combustion. In burning, all oils deposit carbon on the cylinder walls and cylinder heads. Inferior oils deposit a hard; gritty carbon in considerable quantity.

It is this hard carbon deposit which causes pre-ignition, breaking and sticking of cylinder rings, overheating, loss of power, warping and splitting of exhaust valves, and wear of valve stems.

Zerolene deposits a minimum of carbon of a soft, flaky nature which can do no damage and is usually blown out with the exhaust.

Lubricate exclusively with Zerolene, adopting the recommendations embodied in the Zerolene chart of recommendations, and you will develop the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of your car.

Where You Get the Miles As Well as the Car

Whenever you look for a new car in an automobile salesroom, you are looking at so many miles of transprtation that the car will deliver under favorable conditions. You may want to use up these miles in one year, or in ten years.

But, between the time you buy the car and the day you get the last mile out of it, you want to feel that somebody you can easily reach is able and willing to see that your car gives you the mileage you bought.

You may not need much more than an occasional inspection, and new tire, or some friendly, helpful counsel. Again, you may require a lot of things—accessories, parts, repairs, periodical adjustment, storage or complete overhauling.

It depends on you and the daily task you put thereupon the car. Whatever the need, Dodge Brothers Motor Car owners always find it here. When you buy a Dodge Brothers from us, you get the miles as well as the car.

DUPLEX CONSTRUCTION
"It's Concrete"

The new way—permanent building block, forming monolithic walls.—Fire-proof and damp-proof; cool in summer and warm in winter.

Cheaper and better than either brick or tile, and no more expensive than good frame construction.

These blocks are not hollow, but each a solid piece of concrete, 2 1-2 to 4 inches thickness and 8 by 16 inches. To see these blocks manufactured is a revelation.

Home builders should investigate.

Call Richmond 156 and a representative will call, bring blocks with him, and explain the new method to you. It will not only interest you but will save you money.

Brand New Clothes For Buddy

"Say, Eddie, it's some army of buddies we have had with us. And I suppose you did your share of entertaining."

"Yes, I did. But it's a good thing the old O. D's are in pretty good shape, otherwise it would be little entertaining I'd do."

"What's the idea? You don't mean to tell me you haven't any good 'cits' to get into?"

"No, Jim. Not now. The only suit that's presentable don't fit me any more. You see I've put on a few more pounds weight since leaving the army, and I hadn't planned on a new suit until fall. Anyway, I haven't money enough to buy a new outfit now."

"Say, man, cut the chatter and come with me to Cherry's at 528 13th street. They sell clothes on credit. I've bought all my suits there since my discharge, and they give you six months to pay. What more do you want?"

Cherry's store for women is at 515 13th street.—Advertisement.

My stomach, kidney and liver were in bad condition. The lower part of my body pained me awfully. I could hardly lie on either side and sleep. My bowels were hard to move and painful. I treated with other doctors and medicines, but did not seem to do me much good. After taking six weeks Kong Wah Herbs I feel like a new woman.

Stomach As Heavy As Lead

March 16, 1922.
I suffered from dysentery and difficult breathing, my bowels moving constantly with bloody discharges. I also had murmuring indigestion and my stomach felt as though there was a piece of lead in it.
Failing to get relief elsewhere, I took the herbs of the FONG WAN HERB CO. for two weeks. My former complaints have left me entirely and I am now enjoying good health.

Oakland, Feb. 3, 1922.
At intervals I suffered severe pleurisy pains which began in the right side of my chest and ran around under my arm into my shoulder blade. It was both painful and difficult to raise my arm. I had taken various sorts of treatment for the trouble, but had found no relief.
Now, after seven weeks of the FONG WAN HERBS, the pain in my chest is entirely gone and I feel quite well. I bought the herbs in packages and cooked them at home.

"The Silent Vow" Heads Sunday Bill at the Macdonald

One of the best features of double exposure ever filmed and one which caused comment from authorities is shown in the "The Silent Vow," which will be shown at the Macdonald theatre tonight. Until William Duncan had made this unusual piece of double exposure it was always considered by experts that a character could not cross the center of the stage in a double exposure scene.

Duncan always believed that it was possible not only for a character to cross the deadline but to walk all around himself and back again. In "The Silent Vow" Duncan has the role of father and son. As the father, an officer of the Northwest Mounted Police, Duncan is seated in a large easy chair. As the son, a member of the force, Duncan enters the room and talks to his father behind his chair, and takes his father's hand. It is as natural as though two characters wre playing the role, and to those who know the secrets of the studio the results are almost uncanny. Duncan worked alone with his cameras while doing this scene and refused to disclose the means employed to accomplish this result.

"I expect to do even greater than this before I have finished," said Duncan, "and if I am to keep ahead of the others I intend to keep that far. Some day I may give the secret away."

Neal Hart, in "Squaring It," Jack Hoxie in a serial called "Thunderbolt Jack," Snub Pollard, comedian, doing one of his best in "Do Me A Favor," and a Mutt and Jeff complete this Sunday offerings at the Macdonald.

RICHMOND'S DEEP WATER HARBOR HELPED: $100,000 FROM FEDERAL SOURCES

Richmond's deep water harbor again has been recognized by the federal government as being past the stage of experiments and worthy of substantial support, and yesterday the rivers and harbors allotments showed $100,000 appropriated to Richmond.

Congressman Charles F. Curry, informed Harry W. Wernse, of the Richmond Industrial Commission, of the action taken by the government.

Richmond Heads List.

The allotments were made by the chief engineer, in Washington, according to Curry. The appropriations for this congressional district show Richmond at the top of the list. Here they are:

Richmond, $100,000.

Sacramento river, $95,000.

San Joaquin river, $33,000.

Stockton Channel-Mormon Slough diverting canal, $10,000.

Coupled with the $100,00 made available by the U. S. government will be $100,000 by the city from receipts of bonds, which will be used for the 1922-23 program.

News Brings Joy Here.

Already some of the great ships that ply the waters of the world have safely come into the wharfs here and made an unusually departure, and the assurance of further funds for the widening and maintenance of the harbor generally is being received with loud acclaim in Richmond.

GOOD SERVICE GIVEN OWNERS BY DODGE BROS.

Automobile owners, as a rule, have reason for being pleased with the outlook for better service department facilities and a resultant greater satisfaction in owning and driving a car. It is evident that manufacturers are placing more and more emphasis on this phase of their business, not only because it is being demanded by the car owners, but because it has been demonstrated by the few who have insisted upon good service from the very outset, that it pays in dollars and cents to keep a customer satisfied.

J. P. Strom, the Dodge Brothers dealer here, is one who knows what it means to represent a factory that is extremely particular about the sort of service its dealers provide.

"The factory has been steadfast and consistent in its service policy ever since the manufacture of Dodge Brothers cars began," he said. "Keeping pace with the recommendations coming from headquarters, we have steadily developed our own facilities. Among the comparatively recent innovations of importance to the car owner is the flat rate system, which enables him to tell in advance just how much it can possibly cost to be repaired. A specified maximum time is allowed for each operation and he can see it all in black and white before the work is started.

"With more than 750,000 cars already sold, it is not difficult to see why Dodge Brothers are so insistent on good service. The annual replacements among these 750,000 alone call for a production as large as the total output of many factories."

The dealer's comments on Dodge Brothers service policies are borne out by a recent article by Samuel Hopkins Adams, in Leslie Weekly. "Where the 1922 purchasing public is going to profit chiefly is not by buying cheaper," says Mr. Adams, "but in increased utilities at lowered expenses."

"Service, he adds, "is the trade word, a term often abused to the point of parody. But the new form of service, projected, is so perfected and systematized as to comprise perhaps the most important development that the industry has known for years.

"The the initial cost of a car is not the principal item, is a lesson which has been hammered at the public in a series of highly effective advertisements. This principle of economical upkeep, the Dodge and Ford companies have adopted as a fundamental principle.

"Now there are developments which indicate that any concern failing in its future to protect its clientele against exorbitant cost of upkeep may as well get ready to go out of business; for this education which the Dodge and Ford companies started by advertising and precept is to be broadened to a scale which will enlighten the entire motoring public as to the wastefulness, inefficiency and trickery in the repair business.

"The new service plan, upon which with various minor divergencies of detail, I understand many concerns are working—will at once eliminate uncertainty and the opportunity for the conscienceless dealer to make an unfair profit.

"To make the service station cheaper, quicker, and more efficient than the outside garage is the first aim of the new system. The factory will back up the improved standards by a new policy of its own, which is almost revolutionary, expressed in the slogan 'Service First; Let the New Customer Wait.' That is to say, satisfaction on sales already made takes precedence over new sales. All of which looks to the long-distance policy of cheapening operation and thereby making it possible for more people to own and operate cars.

"The new service scheme represents the rare phenomenon of a three-way profit; to the factory on the sale of its equipment, to the service station in its augmented earnings, and to the owner in an unprecedented reduction of his bills."

5 Big Vaudeville Acts on Bill Today at T. & D. Theater

There are five acts of particular merit included on the big new vaudeville bill that is booked to open at the T. & D. Theatre Sunday, July 9. O'Day and Marlowe will offer a "Comedy Singing and Talking Act" that has been a great favorite all along the circuit. These artists are exceptionally clever in their line and their act is the sure-fire variety. Al and Flo Cooper are billed as "Novelty Artist Entertainers" with an offering that is distinct and different. George Murphy "Juggles While Telling Stories" and the line of patter is quite as effective as the feats. Mansfield and Riddle's "Snappy Songs and Dances" are sure to please. The [illegible] are announced as "[illegible] most Original Dancers" and more than live up to the billing.

They are four sensible young subjects that are now on a tour of the United States. The two gentlemen have seen four year of service in the Belgian air service and the two ladies served in the Red Cross. They have also appeared before many of the crown heads of Europe, being personally presented to the King and Queen of Belgium. Their dances which they are featuring are all unique and original.

Mary Miles Minter in "South of Suva" is the film feature of the bill.
